

What do we do?

Upward Bound supports 127 Lansing area high school students.

Four area high schools served by Upward Bound of MSU:

- Eastern
- Everett
- Sexton
- Waverly

Program is geared to a diverse group of underrepresented youth who come from backgrounds that are low income and have no parent in the home with a Bachelor's degree or above.

Students travel to educational sites throughout the State of Michigan and outside of the state. This travel enhances the personal, academic and future professional growth of Upward Bound students.

Upward Bound emphasizes the pre-college development of students by focusing on the following areas and attributes:

Tutoring and Support of Study Skills

Mentoring

Financial Literacy

Cultural Development

Community Service Experience

Study Trips

Summer Study Academy

One Week Residential On Campus Experience

College Search and Application Support

College Scholarship Assistance

Builds Leadership Skills

Time Management Skill Development

Program Restructure in 2017 as a result of the loss of federal funding. The Upward Bound program is now completely funded by Michigan State University.

The UB Staff consists of: 7 Undergraduate Learning Assistants

4 Mentors

Program Assistant

School Student Liaison

Office Manager

Director and Program Coordinator
